

Sinclair's effort to forcefeed a long
anti-Kerry
"documentary" just before the election
is completely
undemocratic and propagandistic.

Sinclair gets free
air space.
Regardless of its
legal obligation
to serve the public interest, it gives back to wealthy
puppet masters.
This is bribery, or prostitution of the political sort.

How about showing a bit of American free pride? How about reversing this decision? I listen to radio via the internet, but next,
I'm going to list
sponsors and start
boycotts.

Sinclair's actions,
so far, stink. Can you clean up the rot? Thank you.
